

Fort McMurray Boys and Girls Club

Over half of the children in our programs are from low-income or single parent families. We are able to offer assistance and support to these families through discounted and free programs and have extended hours to accommodate their needs.